PRUCER

FLOWCHART
PRODUCT CERTIFICATION PROCESS

Start

The client gets the Information Packet

A quote is generated for the client

The client pays for the service

The client enters the information required for certification

The client enters the correction → The information entered by the client is reviewed.

Feedback is returned to the client in revision format ← NO — Is the Information Correct? — YES → Assignment of reference number

Test report and technical information are evaluated → Does it comply with the Standard? — NO → The statement is issued

The client enters the correction

YES

The CIC and CTC review results to grant or deny the certificate → The certificate is drawn up

The certificate of conformity is granted → End